Tivoli, NY - On Saturday, August 6, 2022, 4-6pm, Kaatsbaan Cultural Park will host a public reception and artist walk to celebrate the 2022 outdoor sculpture exhibition. This is the second year that contemporary sculptures are installed at Kaatsbaan for the Summer Festival season. Curated by Hilary Greene, the artworks complement the ongoing dance, music, poetry, and culinary arts summer programming. This year's participating artists are: Emil Alzamora, Stuart Farmery, Tristan Fitch, Jared Handelsman, Kenichi Hiratsuka, Lowell Miller, Portia Munson, Shelley Parriott, Eileen M. Power, Gregory Steel, Christina Tenaglia, and Millicent Young.

The sculpture exhibition originated in 2021 in response to the Pandemic as Kaatsbaan moved its events outdoors so both artists and audience could safely experience Kaatsbaan's world class dance and music performances. Exhibition curator Hilary Greene envisioned the artworks as multi-dimensional participants that activate and define the lush historic grounds while celebrating space and being. Focusing on mid-career sculptors, Ms. Greene selected artworks that best embodied the spirit and flow of the Hudson Valley's unique landscape and the joy of rhythm and movement. From hand-carved monuments and wire-bound stones, to vibrant wooden forms and sheer colorful columns, from a glowing silk banner and poetic etched glass, to cast bronze figures and dancing ladders, the outdoor sculpture exhibition at Kaatsbaan displays a powerful vocabulary and far-reaching range of contemporary art.

About Kaatsbaan Cultural Park: The Kaatsbaan Summer Festival, organized by Sonja Kostich, Chief Executive & Artistic Officer, takes place throughout Kaatsbaan's lush 153-acre campus in the Hudson Valley. The mission of Kaatsbaan Cultural Park is to provide an extraordinary environment for cultural innovation and excellence.
